[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT. 4.

EASTERN STATES.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, October 3.—The Republicans have nominated Judge Barnard to the Supreme Court. It is understood the Democrats will do the same.

A discharged employe of the Jersey City Water Works makes disclosures of frauds on the part of the municipal authorities.

The Tammany General Committee has arranged a salute of one thousand guns on the announcement of the nominees of the Democratic State Convention, regardless of the reception of the Tammany delegates.

New York Democratic Convention.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 3.—Tweed arrived to-night with a large delegation of New Yorkers. The indications are that a severe fight will occur in the Convention to-morrow. It is said that the State Committee proposed as temporary Chairman to Tammany, many a one of its bitterest enemies, which was rejected. Reports are in circulation that twenty car loads of roughs are on the way from New York, and the police will brought in large force to preserve order. It is thought L. Robinson will be Chairman.

Missionary Matters.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—The American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions held their annual meeting at Salem to-day. The Secretary's report shows that $48,201 have been expended in the Sandwich Islands, China, India, Persia and Gaboon.

Chicago Dispatches.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The Grand Lodge of Masons of Illinois commenced their session here to-day. One thousand five hundred delegates are in attendance. The Grand Lodge of colored Masons also held their session.

A telegram says a terrible fire is raging in the woods of North Green Bay, Wisconsin, and it is reported that the town of Oconto is burning.

Three per Cents Called In.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The Secretary of the Treasury has called in a million and a half of 3 per cents upon which interest ceases November 30th.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Popular Movement in England.

BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 23.—The Liberal Association has addressed a Circular to the Liberal members for Parliamentary Boroughs on the subject of reform in the House of Lords. The Circular says: "We believe that the time has arrived when an hereditary principle which neither insures wisdom in the individual nor patriotism in the Body must be abolished; when the Second Chamber must be brought into union with popular sympathies, and when the whole right of the House of Commons to carry the will of the people into action over all opposing interests and authorities must be secured."

Religious Matters in England and Scotland.

LONDON, October 3.—The Times of Sept. 23d, says:

A Bishop and an Archbishop have appeared in a pulpit of the Scottish Kirk, and conducted divine service there. The announcement has given a severe shock, as might have been expected, to sensitive ecclesiastical nerves this side of the Tweed. A well known arch Deacon declares that by conducting worship in a Presbyterian chapel, these prelates have forfeited their own claim to exclusive privilege endowments and positions in the church of England, and that they are henceforth morally disqualified from prosecuting any of the inferior clergy for breach of law. Men of another temper welcome the event as an abandonment of sacred claims, a public recognition thereof by the Episcopal churches and the commencement of a system of reciprocity in pulpits.

France and England.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Thiers has notified Granville that the Anglo-French commercial treaty terminates at the commencement of 1872.

French Ship Wrecked.

KINGSTON, Oct. 3.—The French man-of-war Bouvet is ashore on the coast of Hayti. There is danger that it will prove a total wreck.

PICKINGS.

The Norwich Advertiser selects the following from "What I Know About Farming:" "Catch your butterflies late in August. Select deep yellow ones if you would get sweet, salable butter."

The character of Xantippe is now defended on the ground that the income of Socrates, her husband, was only fourteen dollars a year, and he had a habit of bringing somebody home to dinner nearly every day.

Somebody once asked Tom Corwin if he had heard a certain story of Lewis D. Campbell's. "Was it about himself?" inquired Mr. Corwin. "No, I believe not." "Well, then, I never heard it," said Mr. Corwin, gravely.

The Saturday Review says: "We should think, if it were possible for a saint to swear, that undesirable result would be produced when Scott discovered, that, in honor of his hundredth birthday, his name had been made to rhyme with 'what.'"

Gov. Morton, in a recent speech at Cincinnati, thus knocked on the head Mr. Pendleton's tremendous financial idea, that there must be as much money as the aggregate of a year's payments.

Now, Mr. Pendleton, in his speech at Delaware, the other day, used the following language:

"It is an appalling fact that there is not enough currency by $150,000,000 to pay the taxes, if the people were required to pay them all in one day."

Well, now, that is a tremendous thought, and it is also an appalling fact that if the people were required to eat in one day all they now eat in the course of a year, they would inevitably burst. [Roars of laughter.]

A Fresh Light Cast on the Late War.

In view of the astonishing success of the German arms during the late war, there was often a strange forgetfulness of the enormous numerical superiority of the Germans over the French. What was simply due [illegible] military virtue by which the Teuton was sure to beat the Gaul. That the wonderful triumphs achieved by Germany were to a great extent owing to the enormous advantages she had from the superior number of her soldiers, is put in a very plain light in a new work on the "War for the Rhine Frontier," by Colonel Rustow, of the Swiss army, who was formerly Captain in the Prussian army. Colonel Rustow says that, at the outset of the war, Germany could muster in field troops 518,000 men, with 994 guns. Besides this, Germany had 961 men as reserve troops, while France had only 91,000 depot troops. As garrison troops, again, Germany had 187,000 men, while France had nothing equivalent, as the Mobile Guard was not organized. Thus the French strength was not half the German. Similar disproportions in number are observable in nearly all the early battles. At Weissenburg, says Colonel Rustow, "at least 20 battalions of the Germans—that is, about 20,000 men—were actually engaged. Douay's division was scarcely 8,000 strong, and it was, moreover, completely surprised by the German attack," yet the French fought three hours and only lost one gun. At Woerth, two days afterwards, McMahon had only 35,000 men engaged; while "the German troops who really came into action were about 75,000 infantry and cavalry." The numbers engaged at Vionville were nearly equal—about 80,000 men on each side—and it was a draw battle; for "both parties bivouacked on the battlefield." At Gravelotte, however, on August 18th, or two days afterwards, the French had about 100,000 men on the battle-field, and the Germans numbered "at least 200,000" and whereas the former had only 450 guns, with mitrailleuses, the latter had 720.

Joaquin Miller arrived at New York a few days since, and dined at the Lotus Club with a small party of journalists.

OREGON.

A countryman at Salem invested forty dollars in the "strap game," got strapped, of course, and applied to the police for relief, which he didn't get.

A botanist named Hall, from Illinois, has been spending several months in Oregon collecting specimens of the flora of our State. He has visited all parts of it, and has over six hundred specimens.

Sixty teams were unloading wheat at Lincoln, Polk county, at one time, last Tuesday. Most of it had been engaged some time ago at one dollar. It is higher now, and farmers naturally wish they hadn't.

The Statesman complains that farmers up its way have made so good a thing out of their wheat that they feel too independent to bother with making butter and raising chickens. If so, it won't be long till they are out of money.

From the Statesman: Rev. O. Dickinson informs us that he has just shipped East two hundred bushels of Australian white wheat for the Agricultural Department at Washington. This wheat will be distributed free to all parts of the United States.

Rev. C. M. Blake, of the Home School for Boys at Forest Grove, says a contemporary paper, writes us that his establishment is nearly full, and that there is only room for one or two more. The schools of the Pacific University are in a very flourishing condition, and not surpassed by any in the East.

CURRENT NOTES.

Thiers writes with extreme slowness, and never punctuates his manuscript. Nearly all the copy for his numerous books he dictated to a German named Jacob Grosch, who has been his amanuensis for nearly forty years.

The ex-King of Spain, the consort of the deposed Queen Isabella, is stated to be a very skillful turner and wood carver, and spends several hours every day in making small images of saints out of wood. He can out-whittle any Yankee.

Mansard roofs are just coming in fashion in all our cities. Objection to them, however, is found by firemen, who style the roof a "fire trap." When the wind blows, they say the sparks and embers from the burning buildings find easy lodgment on the inflammable portion of the Mansard.

The New York Independent speaks of Woodhull & Claflin's Journal as a "paper controlled by two women and doing its best to smirch the pure cause of Woman Suffrage by its dirty support. There are some things so bad that they should be avoided like the plague; and such is this 'free love'—this Circe which can put on the fair form of woman, and give its votaries 'drugs which make them lose the memory of their home.'"

The order issued by the Navy Department relieving a number of the retired officers from duty will save vast sums of money to the Government, and is another illustration of the economical policy which has been steadily pursued by President Grant and his Cabinet officers. It may be said in this connection that according to trustworthy reports the estimates of all the Departments, which will be submitted to Congress in December, will show a surprising reduction as compared with the estimates of last year.

Robert Burns and John Milton have got into trouble in Paterson, New Jersey. Milton, who has but lately came from England, was badly overcome by Jersey whisky, and was picked up on the street too drunk to tell where he lived. Out of regard for his distinguished reputation the Recorder let John go on promising to pay a fine. Robbie Burns was charged with a different offence—beating his wife and refusing to support her. He was committed for trial. Again, we ask, is there anything in a name?

A few days ago the operation of applying the heavy tests to the first span of the Missouri river bridge at Omaha, was commenced. Six cars whose gross weight was 70,000 pounds each—one car weighing 74,000 pounds—making an aggregate weight of 574,000 pounds, were moved on to it. The bridge deflected exactly two inches and a half, and then stood firm. After the cars were removed it sprang back half an inch. The experiment was repeated with precisely the same result, thus showing that the permanent deflection was two inches. This was perfectly satisfactory.

The last monthly report of the Agricultural Department gives an account of a remarkable wool clip in California. It is gravely stated, and no joke is intended, that the Department has a sample of wool from a fleece that weighed seventy-eight and a half pounds, and that the first fleece taken from the same sheep was sixteen months old, weighed forty-two and three-fourths pounds. There is a good deal of anxiety at the Agricultural Department to know more about the sheep of California, and the new Chief Clerk of the Department, who is said to be responsible for the statement, will doubtless have some further report on the subject next month.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

The United Presbyterians are building somewhere (the newspapers do not say where) a church of petrified wood and leaves. This curious material shows the layers of leaves and the origin of wood very distinctly, together with small shells, that have changed into firm stone. But what does Paul say about "wood, hay, stubble?"

Statistics of the California Methodist Conference: Members in full, 5,715; members on probation, 951; local preachers, 108; churches, 98; parsonages, 70; Sunday schools, 134; officers and teachers, 1,438; scholars, 9,009. Ten preachers were received on trial, five into full connection and ordained deacons, five were ordained elders. didates, 214; congregations, 1,863; added by experience and letter the last year, 7,850; died, 380; total in communion, 93,335; baptized; adults, 8,430; infants, 978; churches organized, 78; houses of worship erected, 10; number of Sabbath schools, 518; number of teachers, 3,502; number of scholars, 26,460.

The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions reported to the last annual meeting a debt of more than $22,000. Though a large number of its Presbyterian friends have ceased to contribute to its treasury—intending hereafter to give to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions—the treasurer expects to report to the meeting at Salem, Mass., to be held this month, a debt of only about $1,000.

The Unita Cattolica is responsible for the statement that at "the beginning of the year 1850 the Jesuit body throughout the world was only a little in excess of 4,000. Ten years afterward they had increased to nearly 7,000, and in the following decade of years nearly 2,000 more were added to their number; and at the time of the last returns the members of the 'Society of Jesus' are given as 8,837. Out of these there are 2,551 lay coadjutors, 2,417 students, and 3,869 priests."

Dr. Dexter has found a rich mine in the Leyden records, which he is working with enthusiasm. In the twelve different sorts of registers which were kept in that city during the sojourn of the Pilgrims, and which are now in good preservation, he finds abundant traces of their history. The names of John Robinson, William Bradford, Degory Priest, Robert Cushman and their families frequently appear in the records of marriages and burials, and in the mortgage entries and tax lists, and much light is thus thrown upon the condition of the Pilgrims during their stay in Holland before their departure for America.

Heavy frosts that occurred in August materially damaged the Montana wheat crop.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

Fires in Ohio.

TOLEDO, October 4.—Great fires are raging in the woods along the Toledo and Wabash railroad. Hundreds of cords of wood and miles of fences are destroyed with several houses, corn fields and meadows. The damage amounts to many thousand dollars. The fire is still raging.

Prairie Fires in Minnesota.

CHICAGO, October 4.—A St. Paul special says terrible prairie fires have been raging for several days past in a number of counties in the western part of the State. Already the fire has passed over portions of six counties, all but one of which (McLeod) are thinly populated. In McLeod, however, thousands of tons of hay and thousands of bushels of grain are consumed. Many farmers have lost all the hay they have and the fires are still raging with unabated fury. They are rapidly spreading south and southeast under a fierce wind towards the more densely populated parts of the State. Inhabitants in some counties are reported to be fleeing, leaving everything behind.

Mayor Hall Arrested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Mayor Hall appeared at the Yorkville Police Court this morning to answer the charge of signing fraudulent warrants. He waived examination and offered bail to any amount. Barrett, counsel for the prosecution, said there was no necessity for bail, as it was not contemplated to hold him in durance.

Coal Mine Explosion.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—There was an explosion of fire damp at 9 o'clock this morning in a mine in Glamorgan county, Wales. Five men were killed. Owing to the early hour the regular force had not yet commenced work, else the loss of life would have been frightful.

Religious Discussion in Germany.

DARMSTADT, Oct. 4.—A meeting of Protestants of Germany is being held here. There was a discussion on the Protestant religion in Germany, and an address was declared adopted setting forth: First, that it is the interest of Germany to oppose Papal infallibility; second, that the dogma is inimical to the service of the State, the liberties of the people, and destructive of the freedom of conscience on the basis of pure religion; third, that the establishment of the order of Jesuits be prohibited.

VERSAILLES, Oct. 4.—Another Court-martial is ordered for the trial of military officers arrested during the late war. Eminent officers who surrendered are to be brought before the Court.

ROME, Oct. 4.—The Italian Government has determined that no Professor of a University of Rome shall be permitted to exercise its functions without taking the oath of allegiance.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 4.—Weather cool and foggy.

Arrived—bark Legal Tender, Okotsch sea, with 135,000 codfish. She reports the Gold Hunter with 70,000, the Union with 113,000, the Domingo with 60,000 and the Sutel with 305 only. About half the tonnage which was in this business last year is in this, and the catch so far is small for the men engaged. The prices, however, are better than heretofore, and will be remunerative.

The British ship Talavara, as she now lies ashore at San Raymon bay, Lower California, loaded with coal, was sold at auction to-day for $1,000 to Jo Rountree, and the schooner Joshua P. Haven, lying in port, by the U. S. Marshal, to Commodore Platt, for $300. She will probably be turned over to the San Francisco Yacht Club.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The heated term is over. The weather is now cool, with wind, fog and dust lavishly distributed.

J. Jacoby who was arrested with Daniel Big, a few days since, on a charge of defrauding James Johnson, by borrowing double the value of jewelry deposited with him as security, now sues Johnson for $5,320 damages.

John Sullivan, whose former residence is unknown, died suddenly to-day on being taken to the county hospital.

John Ross arrested last evening for burglary.

A farmer from the vicinity of Petaluma, died yesterday, at St. Mary's Hospital, from lock-jaw, induced by stepping upon a nail which slightly penetrated his foot.

Several hundred shares of Ely sold at $100—buyer 30 days—today.

Leonard Dominguez was stabbed in five places in an affray on Hinckley place, this evening. He could not or would not give any information about his assailants. He was sent to the hospital.

NEVADA.

Wife Murder.

HAMILTON, Oct. 4.—A man named C. F. Moers was arrested at Schell Creek yesterday, on suspicion of having murdered his wife. The parties left Duck Creek together for Toano a few days ago, since when the woman has been missing.

The Trouble with Brigham.

SALT LAKE, October 4.—Everything is quiet. There is no excitement and none anticipated. Brigham Young remains at his residence without a personal guard. He is better to-day and says he will certainly be able to appear before the court in a few days. He repeats his entire submission to the laws, so far as arrests and trial go, but to the question as to what he would do in case of conviction, he has no answer. The return of Gen. Morrow has had an excellent effect in assuring the Committee of Peace and Good Order. Brigham is confident that he cannot be convicted on any charge. The News, church organ, edited by G. Q. Cannon, is bitter and threatening. It says it would be a good thing for names of all those who are attempting to harass the people and eat out their substance to be taken and ing will come, and if at that day the successors of these proceedings shall be gone to their own place, their children, where they have any, can be called on to pay the debt, even though they have to sell themselves body and soul to do it. They can't escape ultimate retribution. The influence of the News, however, regarded it of little moment now among the enlightened classes of Mormons or people.

The Mystery of "Naturalization."

[From the New York Times.]

It is well known that just previous to each election the courts of this city are engaged, day after day, in manufacturing Democratic voters out of newly arrived emigrants, who fraudulently claim the right to be naturalized, or out of men of spurious identity. Thousands of fraudulent voters are thus made every year, and every year we have denounced and exposed in detail the shamelessness of these transactions. Our inspection of the Controller's report shows another phase of this naturalization swindle which has heretofore been overlooked. We find that on the 14th of June, 1870, seventy-three clerks were paid $250 each, or a total of $18,250 for "services rendered during naturalization" in the Court of Common Pleas, the Supreme Court and the Superior Court. Among the persons so paid we find that a majority of them held regular situations as clerks of courts, or were employed in some branch of the Tammany government, and consequently drew pay twice for the same period. Others thus paid as clerks belong to the shoulder-hitting fraternity; can scarcely read or write, and, of course, never pretended to render clerical service for the money paid them. The service which they did render consisted in securing the slums of the city and bringing forward for naturalization ignorant or unprincipled persons, and "swearing them through" as being entitled to the right of suffrage. It was for perjury to the interests of the ring that these persons were paid, and not for clerical service rendered. This $18,250 is but a specimen of the payments made for similar services every year.

THE TERRITORIES.

Receipts at the Walla Walla fair exceeded those of last year by about $500.

A man named Cook, at Walla Walla, has been fined $250 for striking the editor of the Statesman with a cane.

The Sisters of Charity at Walla Walla, with a disinterestedness that adorns human nature, are foremost in providing relief for and nursing smallpox patients.

William Lemon, of Lewis county, W. T., has a bunch of wheat head numbering one hundred and twenty, some of them more than six inches long and all perfectly matured, which are the product of a single grain.

A noted artist has just returned to New York from the Yellowstone country, with a portfolio full of sketches of the marvels of [illegible] of that extraordinary region. He proposes to paint several large pictures, presenting its most imposing features, and six or eight smaller ones, setting forth minor striking characteristics.

A Port Townsend paper says there was more business done in the Puget Sound Custom House last month, than in any one month since the organization of the district, and there are now more vessels in the Sound, loading at the different mills, than there have been for some time. Notwithstanding the cry that the lumber trade is dull, it seems to be on the increase.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1871.

A More Efficient School System.

All who have perused the address on "Free Schools for Oregon," lately published by J. A. Waymire, Esq., of Salem, must acknowledge themselves greatly indebted to him for the intelligent labor which he has expended on the subject, and for the great amount of useful matter which he has embodied in his address, showing both the want of a more thoroughly developed school system and the present condition and future prospects of the Oregon school fund. The writer urges the adoption of a broader plan than we now have, and an approximation to the leading features of the more efficient educational system which, as the result of long experience, has been adopted in many other States. This system he has lucidly outlined, as follows:

1. The division of each county into school districts, so as to accommodate every family in the district.
2. The construction of school houses with due regard to architectural beauty, ventilation, warming, conveniencies and the improvement of surrounding grounds.
3. Graded schools, in which are taught reading, writing, arithmetic, geography, grammar, philosophy, chemistry, history, and sometimes physiology, vocal music, algebra, geometry and the modern languages, according to the demands of the district.
4. The organization of a State Board of Education, with power to prescribe uniform text books and a course of study for pupils; rules and regulations in regard to attendance, and conduct of teachers and children; rules for the care of school libraries, and for the examination of teachers; to grant diplomas to teachers who graduate from the normal schools, etc.
5. The organization of County Boards of Examination, to investigate qualifications of teachers and issue certificates.
6. The establishment of libraries in connection with schools, and the use of globes, maps, charts, blackboards and other apparatus, in teaching.
7. The maintenance of Normal Schools, where teachers are trained to the profession of teaching.
8. The organization of State and County Teachers' Institutes and the establishment of educational journals.
9. Placing the entire subject of education under the supervision and control of a State Superintendent of Public Instruction.
10. Reducing the cost of education, by providing funds from the public treasury to such an extent that every child can receive the benefits of the schools.
11. The establishment of colleges and universities, where the higher branches of learning are taught.

He next proceeds to inquire whether Oregon can support such a system. Examining the results of such a system in California, he finds that the total cost of free schools in that State has averaged for three years about $1,225,000 per annum. In 1869 the cost was $1,306,066, of which only $66,536 was obtained by subscriptions and rate bills; all the rest was the product of the school fund and of direct taxation.

Proceeding next on the fact that the population of Oregon is about one-fifth that of California, the writer argues that the cost here should be only one-fifth what it is there. This would give something like $250,000 as the cost of keeping schools for an average of 7.2 months in the year. The cost for six months in the year would be under $200,000. He learns by inquiry of the Board of School Land Commissioners at Salem that the cash school fund of the State is likely to be fully $500,000 by the beginning of the next session of the Legislature. Interest on this at ten per cent. would give $50,000 a year, which would leave about $150,000 to be raised by direct taxation to support schools six months in the year. The aggregate sum raised by the State tax, by subscriptions and by district tax for 1870 was $122,756, not including the counties of Columbia, Clackamas, Lane, Umatilla and Union, which were not reported. The deduction made from these statements is that "without materially increasing the burden of taxation in 1873, the Legislature, by simply providing a fair and equitable mode of raising and expending the school revenue, may provide a system of free schools in every district in the State for six months in the year."

This is a brief outline of Mr. Waymire's exposition of a more efficient educational system for Oregon. It is understood that the subject will be pressed upon the attention of the Legislature next year. We are not prepared to say that this statement shows in every particular just what is wanted; perhaps it may be in some parts modified or amended with much advantage. Our space will not permit us to give further extracts from this part of the address; we pass on to quote what Mr. Waymire says of the extent, amount and condition of our school funds:

> Our State has a rich endowment for her schools. We have 75,000 acres of land for a State University, and 90,000 acres for an Agricultural College, making 165,000 acres, endowment for that part of our educational system which is to increase the amount of knowledge. Then we have the balance of the proceeds of the 500,000 acres of land reserved by our Constitution for the benefit of the common schools, after deducting the $100,000, with interest, which was given, unwisely as I think, by the last Legislature to the Willamette Falls and Locks Company. We have also, the 16th and 36th sections—one-sixteenth of all the lands in the State—amounting to 3,810,966 acres. The grand total is 4,475,966 acres. This land ought, judging from the results in Kansas, Minnesota, and other States, to bring us from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000. In Minnesota the school lands are selling at an average of $6 23 per acre. Making liberal allowance for worthless lands and losses, we will ultimately realize from it not less than $8,000,000. A very small portion of any lands in this State are valueless, as I can affirm from personal observation of nearly all of it. Our school lands are rapidly being converted will maintain a system of schools in this State by which all the children of Oregon, in all time to come, may be liberally educated. This is surely a prospect to be proud of. Let us not forget, too, that we are almost entirely free from debt. At the last session of the Legislature the indebtedness of the State amounted to $88,710. This was all for soldiers' relief and bounty bonds, to redeem which and pay interest accruing thereon there is now levied an annual tax of one and one-half mills. By the time the Legislature will meet next year, there will not be more than $45,000 of the debt remaining, and in one year more the State will be entirely out of debt, unless new debts are contracted, of which there is no apparent necessity. When California adopted the free school system, she was in debt over four millions of dollars, while the counties were in debt more than twice as much. There is no impediment of this kind in our way.

Certainly, the prospect, as here is exhibited, is very promising. Rightly managed and administered, our school fund ought to become one of the best and most productive in the Union. The time is at hand when more attention must be given a subject which is so great and important both in its present bearings and future consequences.

January 1st, 1869, the debt of the city of New York was officially stated at $30,209,920 59. September 14th, 1870, it was ascertained by the Reform Committee to be $97,287,525 03. Increase in two years and eight months, $66,993,595 44. The city has nothing whatever to show for this enormous increase of its debt. Where the money went to the dispatches for several days past have been telling. Here are the fruits of "Democracy" in the most "Democratic" city in America.

Concerning National Expenditures.

The Herald has been using the finance report we sent it. From the official record therein presented it finds that the revenues of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870, were $411,255,477 63. Also that out of this sum there was paid on the principal of the public debt $101,601,916 88, leaving for other purposes the sum of $309,653,560 75. At this point the Herald asks:

> Now what became of this last sum of more than three hundred and nine and a half millions of dollars? Was any of it used towards paying off the public debt? Not a cent. It was all squandered in paying the expenses of this extravagant, wasteful and corrupt administration.

Let us see for a moment. Interest on the public debt was (we avoid broken numbers) $130,000,000. Pensions absorbed about $25,000,000 more. Here is an aggregate of $155,000,000. Was this wasteful? How would the Herald make it less? We have left $154,000,000 for all other expenses. This is currency, equal say to $138,000,000 gold. Of course it is a much larger sum than was expended ten or twelve years ago. While Mr. Buchanan was President the annual expenditure was something like $70,000,000 gold, or perhaps a little more. All are aware that there are now many necessary expenses which were not known ten or twelve years ago. We are a greater and more numerous nation than we were then. Both the army and navy are larger, and it is necessary that they should be larger. The operations of Government are necessarily more numerous and consequently more expensive. Much more money is expended for the improvement of rivers and harbors, for the erection of public buildings, for carrying the mails, etc., than was expended twelve years ago. In short the country has grown some in that length of time, and to complain that it costs more money to conduct the operations of Government now than it did a dozen years since is very much the same as if a man should whine because it takes more cloth to make him a coat than it took when he was a boy.

Take the State of Oregon for an illustration. A dozen years ago it was under a Democratic administration. To-day it is under a like administration; but its expenses now are double what they were then. What would be thought of the man who would insist that all the money expended by the present State government in excess of what was expended in 1860 was "squandered by an extravagant, wasteful and corrupt administration?" Will the Herald look at its own words, in this connection?

In the National Government the Republicans have been steadily reducing expenditures, and will beyond doubt succeed in cutting them down somewhat further. But it is as absurd to suppose that the expenses will ever again be brought down to the rates of a dozen years ago as it would be to censure President Buchanan because he expended more than President Jackson, or to condemn Gov. Grover's administration in this State because its expenditures exceed those of Gov. Whiteaker's. We trust our neighbor will be able to see these things. Mystify them as he will, he may be sure the people take them into consideration and fully understand them.

The Tammany Republicans.

The New York Times undertakes to tell who compose the "Tammany Republican faction" of that city, which caused the recent disturbance in the State Convention. It says:

> The nucleus, and in fact the bulk of the faction consists of men whom the Tribune has denounced repeatedly within the last year as traitors, who have used their influence and position in the Republican party to betray into the hands of Tammany Hall. Around this nucleus are gathered three classes of men, calling themselves Republicans.
> First—The personal enemies of Collector Murphy, who are enraged because they could not get all the patronage of the Custom House for themselves and their friends. These men are continually talking about "Murphy's tools" and the "Custom House clique."
> Second—The enemies of General Grant and his administration—mostly disappointed office seekers. Their denunciations of the Republican President and the administration generally, may be heard in season and out of season, and are more violent even than those of their rivals the Democrats.
> Third—Partisans of Senator Fenton, who are trying to make use of the divisions here to promote the political interests or gratify the supposed spite of their chief against Senator Conkling.
> These are the kind of men who compose the Tammany Republican organization in this city, and who, through their organ, the Tribune, are trying to persuade the Republicans of the interior to vote for their admission to the State Convention as representatives of the Republican party of this city.

The Democratic organ says it is just as much entitled to receive public documents as we are, but complains that "his (our) Senators in Congress never thought it worth while to send the Herald a book." Well, what about Senator Kelly? Is nothing expected from him? It seems that he has done nothing yet. And what of Congressmen Smith and Slater, and their remissness? Wouldn't it be more just for the Herald to censure the Democratic delegation in Congress for not remembering it, than to speak with severity of Republicans for not extending needed favors? Senator Kelly, instead of attending to the wants of his constituents is skylarking over the country seeking pleasure and devoting his whole talents, such as they are, to having a "good time." This, it is understood, is to be his principal employment during his term, and it was for this chiefly that he sought an election. Suppose the Herald "goes for" him.

[illegible] allowing no man to go on the trial juries who would not be willing to convict for adultery. They propose in this way to avoid Mormon influence; in short, they intend to try the "Saints" with "Gentile" juries, "organized to convict." But we have little faith that anything will result. So far the Saints have managed to circumvent all their adversaries, and in all probability will again.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The editor of the Times has been presented with a purse of $50,000 by the Union League in recognition of his services against the Tammany Hall Ring.

A. H. Stephens, the Democratic "Vice President," doesn't let up a bit. He lays the loss of recent elections to the new departure nonsense, and hopes the frisky Young Democracy will get enough of it after awhile and do as the old man tells them.

A New York dispatch of September 28th gives this: A number of prominent Democrats from the South and West have had a meeting with leading members of the party, and have agreed, it is said, to put Chief Justice Chase forward for the Presidency. Those claiming to know declare that Chase is very anxious to be a candidate, and he has an entire understanding with influential Democrats all over the country that he shall be nominated. It is reported that he himself prepared a platform very liberal in character, and which he thinks will be satisfactory to many discontented Republicans.

On Monday last a temporary organization of the Washington Territory Legislature was effected. E. S. Joslyn was elected President of the Council pro tem., and J. J. H. Van Bokkelen Speaker pro tem. of the House.

Tammany's Earthquake.

CONDITION OF THE RING.

John Foley, the leader of the Reform Committee which is trying to rescue the city of New York from the Tammany thieves, recently said to a Herald reporter:

> Hall is outside the law and has not a leg to stand on. He dare not impeach his confederate, Connolly, for the reason that if he did he would expose himself, and not himself only, but Tweed and Sweeny, the other members of the Ring. I believe, as Horace Greeley believes, that Hall is mad. If he were not mad he would scarcely declare one day that he had no power to remove the Comptroller and the next affirm that he had. But it is characteristic for madmen to imagine other people insane. We fully expect to see him in the State Prison, with his confederates, soon."
> "But, Mr. Foley," mildly suggested the reporter, "is not Richard B. Connolly now your confederate?" "Not at all! We have
> NO AFFILIATION WITH CONNOLLY WHATEVER.
> He is equally to blame, but not more than the others except, perhaps, Tweed. Connolly has offered the Committee of Seventy to pay back to the city to the last cent, all the money he owes."
> "He will make restitution?"
> "Yes; he will pay every cent. Oh, he will make full restitution. But he will do more. He has offered to submit statements which will criminate and send to prison Sweeny, Tweed and Hall."
> "Has he done it, or merely promised to do it?"
> "I guess he has done it. The Committee have the whole evidence in their hands."
> "Then it is intended to save Connolly from the consequences of his crimes so that his rivals in the Ring may be punished as they deserve. Is that it, Mr. Foley?"
> "Not by any means! There will be
> NO COMPROMISE WITH CONNOLLY
> whatever, or with any of the infamous Ring. My impression is that the whole four will have to go to State Prison."
> "Then Connolly has not turned state's evidence exactly, but is so overwhelmed with shame that he is anxious to make restitution and abide the verdict of the courts in his case?"
> "That's about it," answered Mr. Foley, and after nodding meaningly, continued, "Connolly won't go to prison, if he does go, without taking with him the rest of the gang."
> "So, then, you think the power of the Tammany Ring is effectually broken?"
> "I am quite confident that it is. Look at the crowd. They are blundering about in despair, while we are preparing our case—the case of the citizens against them. They are utterly powerless. Hall is the worst of the lot. For many years, to my certain knowledge, he was > for the other three of the Ring. When they wanted him they sent for him, and he had to come. He was a tool, but a willing tool. I am sure his pickings were light compared to those of the others; but that he had pickings we can prove. Good Lord! just think of the Chief Magistrate of the city, sworn to guard the interests of the people, signing away six millions of money to a lot of villains in a few minutes, without examining the papers he signed. And for nothing? Oh, pshaw!"
> LITTLE BETTER THAN A CLERK

A St. Louis man, who believes in St. Louis and its beer, visited Dubuque recently, and being thirsty called for a glass of lager beer. After drinking he remarked, with an indescribable gusto:

"A-h-h! that's splendid! St. Louis beer, is it not?"

"St. Louis?" reiterated the Teuton, "no siree! dat ish Topook peer!"

"What, have you a brewery here?" queried surprised St. Louis.

"A prewery! Seffen tousant Chermans, unt one prewery! Where you was leef when you was home?" and the dispenser of fluids, impressed by the absurdity of the idea as he placed the glasses on the bar, continued to exclaim, sotto voce, "seffen tousant Chermans unt one prewery!"

A late dispatch from New York states that the prosecution of the Tammany gang is seriously hindered by the refusal of the Board of Supervisors which is under Tweed's control, to allow the Committee of Reform the power to send for persons and papers.

Bismarck, according to a Berlin correspondent, believes he was poisoned by some unknown enemy during his recent visit to Frankfort-on-the-Main.

GRAY'S MUSIC STORE!
THE WORLD-RENOWNED
BURDETT ORGAN!
What the Press and the Musical Public of Oregon and Washington Territory Think of Them:
An instrument superior in volume, sweetness, flexibility and variety than any other now being manufactured. * * * Its power is equal to any ordinary Organ twice its size.—Oregon Herald.
Certainly a grand instrument. * * To musical minds the instrument will recommend itself.—Oregon Bulletin.
Burdett's are everywhere taking the place of all other Organs, showing conclusively their superiority. * * The combination is the perfection of the Reed Organ System.—Catholic Sentinel.
My opinion of the "Burdett Combination" Organ is expressed in a very few words: I have never seen its equal in the whole course of my life.
J. B. WYATT,
Director Philharmonic Society and Choir of First Presbyterian Church, Portland, Oregon.
Having examined the "Burdett Combination" Organ thoroughly, I must say I consider it the best instrument of the Reed Organ class that I have seen, and am so well pleased with it, that I have procured one for the use of Trinity Church, where I am at present Organist.
L. W. WALLACE.
Having ample opportunity to test the various makes of Organs during my experience in the States and on this coast as a teacher, I am happy to testify to the excellence of the new Burdett Organ, and cordially recommend it to any of my pupils or friends wishing to get the best.
J. D. McGIBENY,
Director of Choir First Congregational Church.
Superior to anything of the Reed Organ class that I have seen.
J. D. WINTON, Pastor M. E. Church, Kalama, W. T.
After examining the new Burdett Organ, I am fully convinced of its superior excellence, and shall be pleased to introduce it into the institution of which I have charge.

CITY.

THE HARRISBURG BRIDGE COMPLETED.—Th immense structure was completed Tuesday nigh and at half past 11 o'clock P. M. the first locom tive—the J. B. Stephens—ran over it, haulin ten flat cars loaded with one hundred and twent tons of iron. The bridge is seven hundred an seventy feet long. There are two string-bea spans of 50 feet each, one at each end. Ther are two Howe Truss spans of 215 feet each, an in the middle a draw 240 feet in length. Th first work done on the piers was on the 26th da of June, and the first train passed over it on th 3d day of October, the construction occupying only three months and seven days. The cost o the bridge is in the neighborhood of $60,000. The immense weight of the train, over 240,000 pounds, passed over without starting a bolt or rod, or cracking a casting. Some iron had already been run across, and the track had been laid for a short distance. It was expected that the construction train would run, by last evening, to a point at least four miles beyond the bridge. The track will be laid to Eugene City by Sunday noon or night, and the first regular freight train will start from Eugene for Portland, at 10 minutes before nine next Monday morning. Mr. J. B. Montgomery, the contractor to build the bridge, is the same energetic and thorough business man who is contractor on the Northern Pacific road from Kalama, northward.

RAILROAD HOSPITAL.—The Bulletin says: "Yesterday we visited the Railroad Hospital, established by the Oregon and California Railroad Company at East Portland, for the benefit of those employed on the road. The Hospital building is situated, on the bluff, some two hundred and fifty yards from the railroad [illegible] landing, and is sufficiently large, to accommodate twenty patients, and with facilities to increase the accommodations if required. At present there are seven patients in the Hospital, all of whom are convalescent. One of these patients fell a distance of twenty five feet from the bridge across the Wallamet, at Harrisburg, and struck a large rock with his head and shoulders, yet, strange as it may appear, did not break any bones. His system, however, received a terrible shock, and it will be some time before he will be able to get about. Another patient had his foot crushed in a frightful manner, at the machine shop, some three weeks ago, and it was thought the foot would have to be taken off, but Dr. J. T. Ghiselin, who has charge of the Hospital, succeeded in saving the foot, with the loss of a couple of toes."

POLICE C[illegible].—Mr. Burton reported to the Council, last evening, the plans prepared by Burton & Piper for the Police Court House and jail. The building, if erected in accordance with these plans, will be a handsome edifice of three stories, 42 by 75 feet on ground. The lower story is to be occupied as a jail, and is divided into a general jail room and several cells. The second story will contain the court room, Judge's room, Attorney's office, Police Commissioner's office, etc. The third story is divided into several rooms for the confinement of boys and women and the occupation of policemen. The estimates of cost have not been completed, but Mr. Burton informs us that the entire cost, if finished throughout, will not exceed $20,000. It is in contemplation to have the building erected and ready for occupancy sometime in December.

ARREST FOR LARCENY.—Some time last winter two or three enterprising individuals, pursuing the laudable purpose of making a living, carried off a lot of hams without having any proper understanding with the owner. The owner was not, in fact, aware of the transaction till it was all over. Suspicion fell upon one man, and he went to jail for six months. It fell again upon another, and he went to the State prison. For the third time the dark shadow has fallen, and this time upon a young man named Donnegan, alias Jackson, who is under arrest and will have a trial this morning, or as soon as an important witness for the State can be procured. Donnegan escaped to other hunting grounds at the time the others were caught, but, three or four days since, he indiscreetly came back.

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON.—From preparations which we have seen in progress for several days at the new Custom House in this city (which will be a Custom House by the beginning of the next century if it gets no set-back), we discover, if we are not greatly mistaken, an evident intention to place another stone in the walls in a very few days. Should the work be carried on with the same energy as heretofore, the walls will be up in about thirty-three and a third years, or possibly a few days sooner, as may be demonstrated by a simple arithmetical calculation. The prospect is most encouraging.

NEW POSTOFFICES.—The following are offices recently established in Oregon by the Postoffice Department: Gem and Augusta, Baker county; Antelope, Wasco county; Cartwright, Lane county; Canby, Clackamas county; Hubbard's, Marion county. Boston Mills, Linn county, has been changed to Shedds. In Washington Territory, Battle Ground and Brush Prairie, Clarke county; Kache, King county; Glenaden, Lewis county; Konnewock, Yakima county; Carrollton, Cowlitz county; Rock Creek, Stevens county.

TRAINS FOR FAIR WEEK.—During the Fair week, commencing next Monday morning, passenger trains will leave Portland at 7 A. M., arriving at Salem in three hours. The return accommodation train will leave Salem at 5 P. M., and arrive in Portland at 8 P. M. Trains will also leave Eugene City every day at 8:40 A. M., arriving at Salem at 10 A. M., and returning leave Salem at 5 P. M., reaching Eugene City at 8:40.

SUPREME COURT.—Judge Humason, who came down yesterday from Salem, informs us that the Supreme Court calendar has been nearly cleared off. The Court was engaged yesterday upon a deferred case from this district. There are two or three other cases from the Fifth District, and when they are disposed of the Court will adjourn, probably this week.

THEATRICAL.—The theater going public will be pleased to learn that Oro Fino is to be opened very soon for the winter season. Mr. Knowles received a telegram, yesterday, from Mr. F. M. Bates announcing that he would be up with a full company on the next steamer, and would be ready to open the engagement on the 23d inst.

STEAMERS TO SAIL.—The propeller George S. Wright, Ainsley, commander, will sail for Sitka and way ports on Tuesday, Oct. 10th.

The propeller Gussie Telfair, John Hayes, commander, will sail for Port Townsend, Seattle, Steilacoom and Olympia on Friday, Oct. 6th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

A HUGE FAT FELLOW.—Mr. Quimby of the Exchange is rapidly winning the reputation of a mighty hunter. He came in last evening with a deer which weighed, upon the scales exactly 2[illegible] pounds—such a specimen of the deer family as is not met with oftener than once in a generation.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Presbyterian Synod of Oregon convenes at Corvallis to-day (Thursday) and will continue through the balance of the week. The meeting of this body attracts to itself in other States considerable attention.

EMMET GUARD TARGET EXCURSION.—The Emmet Guard had a meeting last evening and resolved to have their annual target practice next Saturday. The ground selected for the occasion is near the ice house, below the city.

GOOD TEMPLARS' HALL.—Mr. Stitzel informs us that nearly half the stock in the Good Templars' Hall in this city has been subscribed, and the prospect is good for obtaining the balance within a few days.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department will take place next Saturday evening at the Police Court room.

EQUALIZING THE TAXES.—The County Court has been engaged the entire week in the equalization of assessments.

TO SAIL.—The brig Orient, with a full cargo, will sail for San Francisco to-day.

DUE.—The steamship Ajax is due from San Francisco.

KOHN & FISHEL have received by the late steamers large invoices of clothing and gents furnishing, and they now have the largest and best assortment of goods in their line in the city. They sell low, and everybody can buy. Go to Kohn & Fishel's 91 Front street for bargains.

The track will be laid to Eugene City by Sunday noon or night, and the first regular freight train will start from Eugene for Portland, at 10 minutes before nine next Monday morning. Mr. J. B. Montgomery, the contractor to build the bridge, is the same energetic and thorough business man who is contractor on the Northern Pacific road from Kalama, northward.

RAILROAD HOSPITAL.—The Bulletin says: "Yesterday we visited the Railroad Hospital, established by the Oregon and California Railroad Company at East Portland, for the benefit of those employed on the road. The Hospital building is situated on the bluff some two hundred and fifty yards from the railroad ferry landing, and is sufficiently large to accommodate twenty patients, and with facilities to increase the accommodations if required. At present there are seven patients in the Hospital, all of whom are convalescent. One of these patients fell a distance of twenty five feet from the bridge across the Wallamet, at Harrisburg, and struck a large rock with his head and shoulders; yet, strange as it may appear, did not break any bones. His system, however, received a terrible shock, and it will be some time before he will be able to get about. Another patient had his foot crushed in a frightful manner, at the machine shop, some three weeks ago, and it was thought the foot would have to be taken off, but Dr. J. T. Ghiselin, who has charge of the Hospital, succeeded in saving the foot, with the loss of a couple of toes."

POLICE COURT HOUSE.—Mr. Burton reported to the Council, last evening, the plans prepared by Burton & Piper for the Police Court House and jail. The building, if erected in accordance with these plans, will be a handsome edifice of three stories, 42 by 75 feet on ground. The lower story is to be occupied as a jail, and is divided into a general jail room and several cells. The second story will contain the court room, Judge's room, Attorney's office, Police Commissioner's office, etc. The third story is divided into several rooms for the confinement of boys and women, and the occupation of policemen. The estimates of cost have not been completed, but Mr. Burton informs us that the entire cost, if finished throughout, will not exceed $20,000. It is in contemplation to have the building erected and ready for occupancy sometime in December.

ARREST FOR LARCENY.—Some time last winter two or three enterprising individuals, pursuing the laudable purpose of making a living, carried off a lot of hams without having any proper understanding with the owner. The owner was not, in fact, aware of the transaction till it was all over. Suspicion fell upon one man, and he went to jail for six months. It fell again upon another, and he went to the State prison. For the third time the dark shadow has fallen, and this time upon a young man named Donnegan, alias Jackson, who is under arrest and will have a trial this morning, or as soon as an important witness for the State can be procured. Donnegan escaped to other hunting grounds at the time the others were caught, but, three or four days since, he incautiously came back.

THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON.—From preparations which we have seen in progress for several days at the new Custom House in this city (which will be a Custom House by the beginning of the next century, if it gets no set back), we discover, if we are not greatly mistaken, an evident intention to place another stone in the walls in a very few days. Should the work be carried on with the same energy as heretofore, the walls will be up in about thirty-three and a third years, or possibly a few days sooner, as may be demonstrated by a simple arithmetical calculation. The prospect is most encouraging.

NEW POSTOFFICES.—The following are offices newly established in Oregon by the Postoffice Department: Gem and Augusta, Baker county; Antelope, Wasco county; Cartwright, Lane county; Canby, Clackamas county; Hubbard's, Marion county. Boston Mills, Linn county, has been changed to Shedds. In Washington Territory: Battle Ground and Brush Prairie, Clarke county; Kachu, King county; Gleneden, Lewis county; Konnewock, Yakima county; Carrollton, Cowlitz county; Rock Creek, Stevens county.

TRAINS FOR FAIR WEEK.—During the Fair week, commencing next Monday morning, passenger trains will leave Portland at 7 A. M., arriving at Salem in three hours. The return accommodation train will leave Salem at 5 P. M., and arrive in Portland at 8 P. M. Trains will also leave Eugene City every day at 8:40 A. M., arriving at Salem at 10 A. M., and returning leave Salem at 5 P. M., reaching Eugene City at 8:40.

SUPREME COURT.—Judge Humason, who came down yesterday from Salem, informs us that the Supreme Court calendar has been nearly cleared off. The Court was engaged yesterday upon a divorced case from this district. There are two or three other cases from the Fifth District, and when they are disposed of the Court will adjourn, probably this week.

THEATRICAL.—The theater going public will be pleased to learn that Oro Fino is to be opened very soon for the winter season. Mr. Knowles received a telegram, yesterday from Mr. F. M. Bates announcing that he would be up with a full company on the next steamer, and would be ready to open the engagement on the 23d inst.

STEAMERS TO SAIL.—The propeller George S. Wright, Ainslee, commander, will sail for Sitka and way ports on Tuesday, Oct. 10th.

The propeller Gussie Telfair, John Hayes, commander, will sail for Port Townsend, Seattle, Steilacoom and Olympia on Friday, Oct. 6th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

A HUGE FAT FELLOW.—Mr. Quimby of the Exchange is rapidly winning the reputation of a mighty hunter. He came in last evening with a deer, which weighed, upon the scales exactly 264 pounds—such a specimen of the deer family as is not met with oftener than once in a generation.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.—The Presbyterian Synod of Oregon convenes at Corvallis to-day (Thursday) and will continue through the balance of the week. The meeting of this body attracts to itself in other States considerable attention.

EMMET GUARD TARGET EXCURSION.—The Emmet Guard had a meeting last evening and resolved to have their annual target practice next Saturday. The ground selected for the occasion is near the ice house, below the city.

GOOD TEMPLARS' HALL.—Mr. Stitzel informs us that nearly half the stock in the Good Templars' Hall in this city has been subscribed, and the prospect is good for obtaining the balance within a few days.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department will take place next Saturday evening at the Police Court room.

EQUALIZING THE TAXES.—The County Court has been engaged the entire week in the equalization of assessments.

TO SAIL.—The brig Orient, with a full cargo, will sail for San Francisco to-day.

DUE.—The steamship Ajax is due from San Francisco.

KOHN & FISHEL have received by the late steamers large invoices of clothing and gents furnishing, and they now have the largest and best assortment of goods in their line in the city. They sell low, and everybody can buy. Go to Kohn & Fishel's 91 Front street for bargains.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

MERCANTILE AGENCY.—Messrs. R. G. Dun & Co. advertise their Mercantile Agency business, in this morning's paper. Their office is over Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, corner Stark and First street. The object of the Agency is to furnish information as to the capital, capacity and standing of parties engaged in trade, collect claims, supply mercantile reports, etc. We find the agency highly commended by nearly all the leading houses of San Francisco, and by many familiar names in eastern cities.

The celebrated Star Shirt, a full supply, and the Guanoco Umbrella, the latest and best article out to keep off the Oregon mist. A look through J. O'Neil & Co.'s stock will benefit those investing. They sell at marvelously low figures.

An Unprotected System.

Do not fancy because you feel strong that you are impregnable to sickness. Whole neighborhoods are frequently prostrated at this season by malarious fevers. Vigorous muscles and strong sinews, broad shoulders and sound lungs, are no defence against the mephitic vapors of autumn. Frames which have withstood the summer heat may succumb now. Many an athletic man, whose family depends for its support on his industry, now lies prostrate, weak and helpless as a babe, under the periodical assaults of chills and fever, or bilious remittent fever. This could not be if all were wise enough to provide against such a contingency, by toning and fortifying the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This approved vegetable tonic is absolutely harmless, so that it is sheer folly not to take it as a safeguard at a season when disorders of the liver, the stomach, the bowels, and indeed all the visceral organs are generally prevalent. To keep the system in order and insure health, or to put it in order when this precaution has been neglected, is the duty of every human being who values life. For both these purposes Hostetter's Bitters is designated, and it answers both. Petty local dealers are endeavoring in many parts of the country, to substitute preparations made of impure and dangerous materials in its stead. Give them a wide berth. They are prepared by unskillful experimentors, who want to turn a penny at the expense of the public health.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 4, 1871.

Gold in New York, 111¾.

Currency, here, buying, 87c; selling, 88.

The steamer Montana carries away about 800 tons of produce—Wheat about 450 tons and Flour 250 tons.

The brig Orient clears to-morrow (Thursday). She carries about 500 tons of Wheat and balance cargo Salmon.

The bark Dovenby has on 1,100 tons Wheat, and upon receipt of 125 tons more, to-morrow, will clear for Cork.

The bark Bristolian will commence receiving cargo to-morrow. She takes 1,000 tons Wheat.

The bark Niobe is chartered to load Wheat for Cork, for orders, by Messrs. Hewett, Flowerdew & Co. She takes 1,000 tons of Wheat.

The cargoes of both the above vessels are secured, and sufficient Wheat purchased in addition to load another.

We have heard regrets expressed at the incorporators of "The North Pacific Fire and Marine Insurance Co." not placing the capital to be subscribed at such an amount as to cause it to take rank among the leading Fire and Marine Insurance Companies of the coast.

On Sept. 28th the Bank of England raised the rate of interest to 4 ₱c. per annum, being an advance of 2 ₱c. in two weeks. The Bank of England's return for the week ending Sept. 6th, 1871, gives the following results when compared with the previous week:

Rest	23,636,411	Increase	£278,831
Public deposits	[illegible]	Increase	320,330
Other deposits	21,202,235	Decrease	845,544
Government securities	13,768,363	Decrease	200,000
Other securities	20,860,092	Increase	431,432
Notes unemployed	14,096,205	Decrease	450,180

The amount of notes in circulation is £25,089,546; being an increase of £241,190; and the stock of bullion in both departments is £24,[illegible]10,585; showing a decrease of £227,878, when compared with the preceding return.

The estimated stocks of Grain and Flour in Liverpool compare as follows:

	Wheat. qrs.	Beans. qrs.	P[illegible] qrs.	Corn. qrs.	Flour. sks.	bbls.
Aug. 31, 1871	465,084	20,220	5,271	66,378	60,145	24,907
June 30, 1871	478,781	12,894	5,725	54,054	23,712	109,814
Sept. 30, 1870	492,931	13,685	13,829	51,808	10,778	235,864

Owing to the high prices ruling in England shippers are attracted to that market and consequently more vessels were afloat on the 1st of September this year by at least twenty-five than last year on the 1st of Sept., and the exports from the supply ports on the Atlantic from the 1st to the 15th of Sept. is nearly double that of last year for the same period in Wheat, and in Corn very nearly 700 ₱c more. The aggregate exports compare as follows, (New York to the 15th, Boston and Baltimore to the 9th):

	1871. bushels.	1870. bushels.
Wheat to the United Kingdom	1,219,385	678,827
" Continent	365,835	161,158

The aggregate of Corn exported to the United Kingdom in 1871 from Sept. 1st to the 15th from New York, the 14th from Boston and [illegible] from New Orleans, Baltimore and Philadelphia [illegible] aggregate 477,001 bushels, and for the like [illegible] 3,4[illegible] b[illegible]. So that [illegible] in Liverpool were larger [illegible] last year on that day, notwithstanding the large exports from Liverpool to the Continent. The exports to the United Kingdom from Canada last season were very insignificant, but for this season up to the present time aggregates largely. If we may be allowed to judge from reports reaching us from commercial centres without statistics given. The exports for the months of August and September from Canada ports will amount to several hundred per cent. over the amount exported last year for the same period of time. Liverpool circulars gives receipts from Canada as liberal of both Wheat and Maize. The following table will give an idea of imports at Liverpool from the 5th to the 7th of September, 1871, inclusive:

	Wheat. qrs.	Oats. qrs.	Beans. qrs.	Corn. qrs.
America (Atlantic ports)	10,050			37,440
Canada and other British Colonies out of Europe	8,517			4,620
California and Chili
Mediterranean and Black Sea ports	4,133	8,073	700	14,117

We have previously remarked that a quarter is 500 lbs.

The above table bears us out in a statement made in the OREGONIAN of Oct. 21, 1870. Eastern papers stated, that one-half the Wheat receipts at Pacific ports were shipped to England via Canada, and not marketed as heretofore in New York.

The following from the San Francisco Bulletin of Sept. 26th gives the tariff schedule from San Francisco to New York and vice versa, on the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s steamers. The rates are a shade lower (if previous reports are correct) than by railroad:

The rates are on the basis of 100 lbs, and are payable in United States currency, either in New York or San Francisco. The lowest rate is $2 ₱ 100 lbs, and this rate covers over 30 kinds of goods, including Anvils, Anchors, Boiler Flues, Cement, Clay, Copperas, Canned Goods, Candles, Dressed Granite & Grindstones, and nearly all kinds of Iron and Iron manufactures, Marble and other heavy goods, though Nails and Spikes are taken at $1.75. The next class is charged $2 50 ₱ 100 lbs, and includes Crockery in casks and crates, Cream of Tartar, Coffee, Dried Fruit, Raisins, Prunes, Fish, Oakum, Oil in tins boxed and in bbls and casks, Printing and Wrapping Paper in bundles, Rice, Rubber Packing and Hose, Sodas of all kinds, Sardines, Syrup, Tin Plate and Zinc, Yeast Powders [illegible] Flax, Hemp, Window [illegible] hard wood, Pepper in bags, Pitch, Rosin and Tar, and fancy Soap the rate is $3. The $4 class includes Agricultural Implements, Dried Apples, Castor Oil, compressed Hops, Lemons and Oranges, Heavy Machinery, and plug and twist Tobacco. Drugs and Medicines are generally charged $5. Most all kinds of Dry Goods are rated at $6. Boots and Shoes pay $7. For assorted Groceries, Leather, Liquors in glass, well boxed Machinery, Nuts, Snuff, Twine and Wine, the tariff is $5 50. Other descriptions pay $8, $12 and $16 ₱ 100 lbs. The latter figure is for a very few costly articles, including Furniture set up and boxed, though where not set up the price is $8. Since the above was in type, a comparison of the present with the former rates shows an advance of from 25 to 75 per cent. On Coffee, rice and Paper the advance is 60 ₱ ct.

Merchandise Report.

WHEAT—Market for straight lots prime was 5 cents ₱ cental lower to-day. We are informed of several millers out of the market owing to the high prices, and a belief of lower prices ruling ere long. Farmers and others must bear in mind our quotations are for lots under 500 sks of the straight; for lots of from 1,000 sks upward prices are higher in proportion to the quantity—being from 2½c to 7½c ₱ cental higher than our quotations, and in some instances for extra choice even a shade higher. All purchases are for Wheat on the spot or deliverable in a very few days. We continue our quotations for fair to choice at $2 25@2 35 ₱ cental with sacks, deliverable here; without sacks 14@15c less. Straight lots of prime can be placed higher.

FLOUR—Market presents no alteration at the late advance. Many before prices were advanced any bought large stocks which will carry them for sometime yet. We quote market for extra $7 50 ₱ bbl; superfine, $6 15@7 25 ₱ bbl.

OATS—A cotemporary in speaking of the high prices remarks that several dealers have ordered from California, owing to their being cheaper there than here. We think by the time they receive them here the price will be from 10 to 20c ₱ cental higher than here and of poorer [illegible] here firm at $1 95@2 [illegible] ₱ cental.

EGGS—Owing to advices from San Francisco, dealers were only offering 35c ₱ doz to-day.

OILS—Advices [illegible] continue to give an advancing market for Coal or Petroleum; and also Linseed, the latter was quoted firm in bbls at 81c ₱ gallon.

RICE—A prominent firm received a dispatch giving market in San Francisco for No. 2, 7½c; No. 1, $7 80 ₱ 100 lbs.

DRUGS—Quinine still remains firm at the advance previously noted. Prices receded in New York to $2 60, at which it remains firm. The advance to $4 was caused by speculators, but the high price now ruling was caused by the increased consumption in some localities, owing to sickness, the demand being from three to four times greater than previous years. Opium in New York was dull and lower. The trade in this city speak of increased business, but no changes in any article.
